DEATHS.

est official temperature for December for many years was reached at 7 this morning in this city, the mercury reaching 25 below zero. Even colder weather was reported at other points. Yesterday's gale had subsided and the weather was clear, but the intense cold exists over the entire northwest.

Bummed and exhausted with his long fight against the storm, Joseph Sulgar, 65 years of age, a farmer living three miles from Rice, in Livingston county, fell in the snow and froze to death within forty rods of his own home.

DEWEY GIVES SCHLEY CREDIT FOR THE VICTORY.

One proposition was $500 a night for 40 nights. He declined this and all other offers.

Rayner Says "Fight."

Baltimore, Dec. 14.—Isidor Rayner, chief counsel for Admiral Schley, showed keen disappointment when the findings of the Court of Inquiry were communicated to him last night. He said:

"This country will almost unanimously accept Admiral Dewey's judgment. Testimony was so overwhelming upon almost every one of the specifications in favor of Admiral Schley that I am utterly at a loss to understand upon what facts or upon the evidence of what witnesses the other two members of the court reached their conclusion. I am absolutely satisfied that this will not by any means terminate the controversy. I shall advise the Admiral to fight it to a finish, to open it by every appeal that is possible, Congressional or otherwise, and I believe that the sentiment of the whole country will uphold him in his resolve not to let the judgment stand."

Of Benefit to You.

D. S. Mitchell, Fulford, Md.: "During a long illness I was troubled with bad sores. Was advised to try De Witt's Witch Hazel Salve and did so with wonderful results. I was perfectly cured. It is the best salve on the market." Sure cure for piles, sores, burns. Beware of counterfeits. William Warner, Gem Pharmacy, 112 S. Howard st.

ticed in time to slacken up the speed. The other train was not so. Twenty cars were piled into a heap and traffic was blocked for almost the entire day. The work of wrecking went on slowly because of a blinding snow storm.

PERSONAL NOTES.

Mrs. R. C. Gingle is improving after five weeks serious illness.

Lee and Miss Bessie Anderson, of Wadsworth, will spend Sunday with Akron friends.

Mrs. John Anderson, of Wadsworth, has returned from a visit with Mrs. Horace Greenwood, 117 Hazel st., Akron.

The next dance at the Cotillion club will be held Jan. 2, at Millant hall. Three new members have been added to the club.

Mr. E. Y. Lacey, formerly editor of the Ravenna Democratic Press was in Akron yesterday. He has been ill for more than a year, but is improving in health.

Mr. Frank A. Miller and Miss Grace L. Thornton, daughter of Mr. Elias Thornton, South Main st., were married Thursday evening by Rev. J. W. Moore, at the parsonage of the Main st. M. E. church. Both are well known young people, Mr. Miller being with the Webster, Camp & Lane Co.

Mr. Albert Lengs and Miss Mary Jones, both of Akron, were married Thursday evening by Justice J. R. Campbell at his residence, in East Exchange st.

Misses Bessie Switzer and Nellie Moore, at their home, 505 East Market st., very pleasantly entertained a number of their friends, Thursday night. The evening was spent with games and music.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Simonton, of Richfield, will leave tomorrow for Canon City, Col., where they will make their home with their son, Earl. Mr. and Mrs. Simonton have hosts of friends in Summit county, whose best wishes will attend them in their new home.

Mr. and Mrs. Emil Gammeter delightfully entertained a party of friends at their home, 308 Locust st., last evening. Progressive Pedro was played. Four tables were engaged. Mrs. H. S. Sumner and Mr. John McCann received the prizes. Mr. Archie Harris and Mrs. J. L. Cooper were consoled. A lunch was served.

Buckley Post gave an old-fashioned dance in G. A. R. hall, Friday evening, which was greatly enjoyed by the veterans and their friends. One hundred were present. President O. L. McMillen, of the Board of City Commissioners, forgot the cares of office and danced like a young man of 20.

Ex-County Recorder B. F. Clark was grateful as a knight of old and no less gallant upon the floor. Ex-Sheriff H. G. Griffin, Mr. Asa Whitestone and many others went through some music with sprightliness and vigor. Stickle's orchestra furnished music.

NOT GUILTY.

Squire J. R. Campbell's Plea In Preliminary Hearing.

A preliminary hearing was had in the case of Squire J. R. Campbell, charged by Miss Margery Porterfield, with attempted assault, in Squire Coleman's court, Saturday. The defendant pleaded not guilty, and a motion was filed to have the affidavit dismissed, on the ground that the allegations had not been substantiated. Squire Cleman will decide on the motion Wednesday.

Editor Lynch of "Daily Post" Philadelphia, N. J., has tested the merits of Foley's Honey and Tar with this result: "I have used a great many patent remedies in my family for coughs and colds, and I can honestly say your Honey and Tar is the best thing of the kind I have ever used, and I cannot say too much in praise of it."

ACQUITTED!

George Brodt Free From the Charge of Rioting.

He Was the Only Person Indicted Who Escaped Conviction.

Ex-Councilman Geo. Brodt was acquitted of the charge of rioting. The jury went out at 4 o'clock, Friday afternoon, and returned a verdict of acquittal three quarters of an hour later.

Mr. Brodt is being congratulated by his friends, as he is the only one of the 38 persons indicted by the Grand Jury who has escaped conviction. His case was very vigorously contested, with Attorney S. G. Rogers assisting Prosecuting Attorney Wanamaker and Grant & Sieber representing the defendant. Hearing in the case began before Judge Hayden, in Court room

No. 1, Tuesday afternoon. A great deal of interest has been centered in this trial, as it was the last of the riot cases. Both sides were very thorough in presenting and handling testimony. During the trial, Judge Hayden overruled a motion of the defense to not allow a grand juror to go on the stand and offer in testimony against the defendant the story he told, when arraigned before the Grand Jury. This was a new ruling in Summit county courts—the permitting of a grand juror to be used by the prosecution.

Relief In Sight.

The scarcity of railway cars that has made life almost a burden to the representatives of the different railroads, is said to have relief in sight. The month of January is usually what is termed a light month for traffic, and the roads are getting to the stage when they may expect returns from the construction of cars, for which they let contracts some time ago.

The Erie road alone has given contracts for the construction of 2,000 cars, and deliveries will be made on these in a short time, so that the present congestion will be removed, to a certain extent. Other roads are almost equally busy.

The express companies are reaping a harvest, and their employees are very busy taking care of the many packages that must be delivered for the Christmas trade and for Christmas presents.

COURT NEWS.

It may have been merely a co-incident, but from all appearances it is believed the bondsmen of Mrs. Melvina Fulmer of Brittain, who is guardian of her insane husband, Daniel Fulmer, have become frightened over the swindle incident. At any rate, they both—J. A. Stetler and Isaac Madlen—appeared in Probate Court Friday and asked to be released from Mrs. Fulmer's bond. Although they said nothing about the swindle, they seemed suspicious of something.

Kate McCormick, administratrix of the estate of her father, Thomas McCormick who was killed on the railroad, at Old Forge, has been given judgment against the Erie Railroad Co., for $5,200. She sued for $10,000. The case was tried by Judge Kohler and a jury in Common Pleas Court room, No. 2.
